III. Composition of Convention

- A. The Convention shall be composed of Delegates and Alternate Delegates of the respective units they represent. Representation shall be based on a percentage of the total number of Republican votes cast in each county and city in the last gubernatorial and presidential election combined. Each unit delegation's voting strength shall equal one (1) Delegate Vote for each two hundred fifty (250) votes cast or major portion thereof for the Republican candidate in the most recent elections for President and Governor. Each unit shall be entitled to at least one (1) Delegate Vote. Each unit's maximum number of Delegates is a number five (5) times its respective Delegate Vote. Each locality's Delegate Vote is set forth below:

AMHERST COUNTY	65	325
AUGUSTA COUNTY	174	870

- B. The Delegates present in a given Unit delegation shall designate which Alternate Delegate(s) shall vote in the place of an absent Delegate(s), except where the body electing the Delegates has determined another method of Alternate Delegate selection. With the certification of delegates, each unit chair will indicate whether the Delegates present and voting at the Convention shall cast the full vote of the Unit delegation or only that percentage of the vote that reflects the number of elected Delegates who actually attend the convention. In either case, proportionate weight shall be given to majority and minority vote. In no event shall any person cast less than one-fifth (1/5) of a Delegate vote.
- C. The Delegates and Alternate Delegates shall be elected in county and city Mass Meetings, Party Canvass or Conventions that shall be called for this purpose in conformity with the Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia by each unit committee.
- D. The calls for the Unit Mass Meetings, Conventions or Party Canvass to elect Delegates and Alternate Delegates to the District Convention must be submitted to the Republican Party of Virginia for publication on the website of the Republican Party of Virginia (www.virginia.gov) and published on the website of the Sixth Congressional District of Virginia Republican Committee (www.sixthdistrictgop.org) in accordance with Article VIII, Section A, Paragraph 2 of the Party Plan, not less than fifteen (15) days nor more than sixty (60) days in advance of the Unit Mass Meetings, Conventions or Party Canvass, or of any pre-file deadlines that may be required for chosen election processes. Since no unit calls may be published prior to January 1, 2020, election of Delegates and Alternates to the District Convention shall take place between January 16, 2020, and April 14, 2020 (inclusive) or a later date if necessitated by state or federal COVID-19 orders. No unit pre-filing deadline shall be earlier than January 16, 2020.

- E. Military Provision. Military Members [defined in Article II, Paragraph 25 of the Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia (Party Plan) as members of the Virginia National Guard, the United States Armed Forces, Merchant Marine, or Coast Guard] will be selected in conformity with Article VIII, Section H, Paragraphs 6 and 7 of the Party Plan.

Military Members who are to be delegates must be identified as Military Members on the list of certified delegates provided to the District Secretary by each unit chairman. Military Members who will be casting candidate preference ballots shall likewise be identified at the beginning of each list of certified delegates so that ballots may be provided to those individuals in a timely manner. Should orders change following certification of delegates such that a Military Member who had planned to attend the Convention becomes unable to attend, a notice to that effect shall be provided by the unit chairman to the District Secretary so that efforts can be made to provide the affected Military Member with a preferential ballot. In no case will a preferential ballot from a Military Member be accepted less than three (3) days prior to the convention.

The preferential ballot provided to Military Members will allow Members to indicate their first, second, third, etc., choices for each office such that the Member's first choice will receive their vote on the first ballot and the highest ranking choice on their ballot will be cast on subsequent ballots. [For example, if the Member's first and second choices are both eliminated from the process as a result of the first ballot, the Member's third choice would receive the Member's vote on the second ballot.] In those races where three individuals will be elected to an office (State Central Committee representatives and National Convention delegates), the Member's top three preferred candidates will receive the Member's votes on the first ballot.
