Qualifications for Participation

All legal and qualified voters of Northumberland County, under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions and/or primaries encompassing their respective election districts.

Filing Requirements

Candidates for the election of Chairman of the Northumberland County Republican Committee shall file the attached pre-file form by mail or in person no later than 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 4, 2020, to Elayne Burns, Secretary, Northumberland County Republican Committee, 810 Holly Harbor Rd., Reedville Virginia 22539. Postmarks do not govern. There will be no nominations from the floor of the Mass Meeting for the office of Chairman.

A pre-file form is attached for those persons seeking membership in the Northumberland County Republican Committee, or for those persons seeking to become Delegates or Alternate Delegates for the First District Convention and/or for the State Convention. Forms also will be available at the Mass Meeting.

Registration Fee

There will be NO registration fee to participate in the Mass Meeting. A voluntary contribution of Five Dollars ($5.00) is requested of each Delegate and Alternate Delegate to the First District Convention to help defray the cost of the Convention. Failure to pay the requested filing fee will not result in disqualification.

To assist the operations of the Republican Party of Virginia in supporting unit mass meetings and conventions, and in the administration of the State Convention, a candidate filing fee of Thirty-Five Dollars ($35.00) is requested of each person standing for election as a delegate or alternate delegate to the State Convention. Failure to pay the requested filing fee will not result in disqualification.

Military Members as Delegates

RPV Convention:

Any Military Member who is otherwise qualified under Article I to participate in Republican Party actions and who complies with the procedures to become a delegate to any Convention as set forth in the Official Call of the Convention, Mass Meeting, or Party Canvass called for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to that Convention (other than a national Republican Convention), and who produces valid military identification or other proof of active-duty status shall be certified as a delegate and shall not be required to be elected as a delegate. The number of delegates certified in this manner shall count toward each unit's maximum allowable number of convention delegates.

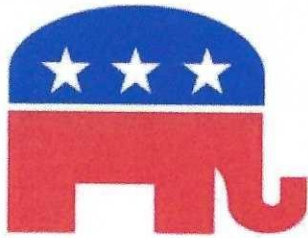

Military Members who are certified as delegates pursuant to the preceding paragraph that are unable to attend the convention in person due to obligations of their official military orders, shall have their votes cast within their unit delegation according to candidate preference ballots. Candidate preference ballots shall list the Military Members rank order preference among candidates (i.e., first choice, second choice, third choice, etc.). Their votes shall be cast for the highest ranked choice candidate who remains eligible to receive a vote in a particular round of voting. Candidate preference ballots shall be made available by the RPV Chairman or his designee at least twenty (20) days prior to the convention. Ballots must be returned to Chairman Jack Wilson no later than 12:30 pm on Tuesday April 28, 2020.

1st District Convention:

Military Members (any members of the Virginia National Guard, or the United States Armed Forces, Merchant Marine, or Coast Guard currently serving on active duty) may be certified as delegates by complying with the procedures detailed in a Unit's call pursuant to Art. VIII, Sec. H, para. 6 of the RPV Party Plan of Organization. Military Member delegates or alternate delegates that are unable to attend the convention in person due to obligations of their official military orders, shall have their votes cast within their unit delegation according to candidate preference ballots.

Candidate preference ballots will be made available by the District Committee no later than May 24, 2020 (20 days prior to the convention) on the 1st Congressional District Republican Committee website, va01republicans.org, or upon a request by email to va01gop@gmail.com. Candidate preference ballots must be received by the District Chairman no later than June 10, 2020 (three days prior to convention) by e-mail to va01gop@gmail.com or by physical delivery to Bob Watson, 6093 Spindle Tree Court, Woodbridge, VA 22193.
